Act No.13 of 1994
THE HIMACHAL PRADESH MUNICIPAL ACT, 1994

(As ASSENTED TO BY THE GOVERNOR ON 18th OCTOBER, 1994)

AN ACT
to consolidate and amend and replace the law relating to municipalities in. Himachal Pradesh.

BE it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of Himachal Pradesh in the .Forty-fifth year of the Republic of India as follows :

CHAPTER-I PRELIMINARY

Short title, extent and commencement

1. (1) This Act may be called the Himachal Pradesh Municipal Act, 1994.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Himachal Pradesh.

(3) It shall and shall be deemed to have come into force on the 30th day of May, 1994.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,-

(1) "annual value" notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, means.

(a) in the case of land, the gross annual rent

(i) to be calculated on the basis of fair rent fixed under the law relating to rent restriction for the time being in force; or

(ii) where no fair rent referred to in item (i) is fixed, at which it is expected to be let or it is actually let, whichever is greater:

Provided that, in the case of land assessed to land revenue or any other tax in lieu thereof or of which the land revenue has been wholly or in part released, compounded for, redeemed or assigned, the annual value shall, if the State Government so directs, be deemed to be double the aggregate of the following amounts, namely:-

(i) the amount of the land revenue or any other tax in lieu thereof for the time being assessed on the land, whether such assessment is leviable or not; or when the land revenue has, been wholly or in part compounded for or redeemed, the amount which, but for such composition or redemption, would have been leviable; and

(ii) when the improvement of the land due to canal irrigation has been excluded from account in assessing the land revenue, the amount of owner's rate or water advantage rate, or other rate imposed in respect of such improvement;

(b) in the case of any house or building, the gross annual rent at which such house or building together with its appurtenances or any furniture that may be let for use and enjoyment therewith, is let subject to the following deductions:-

(i) a deduction not exceeding ten per centum of the gross annual rent as the municipality in each particular case may consider a reasonable allowance on account of the furniture let therewith

(ii) a deduction often per centum for the cost of repairs and for all other expenses necessary to maintain the building in a state to command such gross annual rent. The deduction under this sub-clause shall be calculated on the balance of the gross annual rent after the deduction, if any, under item (i)

(ii) where land is let with a building, such deduction, not exceeding ten per centum of the gross annual rent, as the municipality in each particular case may consider reasonable on account of the actual expenditure, if any, annually incurred by the owner on the maintenance of the land, in a state to command such gross annual rent.

Definitions

Explanation-I- For the purposes of this clause it is immaterial whether the house or building, and the furniture and the land let for use or enjoyment therewith, are let by the same contract or by different contracts, and if by different contracts, whether such contracts are made simultaneously or at different times.

Explanation-II- The term "gross annual rent" shall not include any tax payable by the owner in respect of which the owner and tenant have agreed that it shall be paid by the tenant

- (c) where the gross annual rent of any land or building cannot be terminated under clause (a) or clause (b);
- (i) in the case of land, ten per cent of the cost of land; and
 - (ii) in the case of buildings ten per cent of the sum of the cost of erection of the building and the cost of land

Provided that in the calculation of the rateable value of any building, ten per cent of the rateable value so determined shall be deducted for the cost of repairs and for all other expenses necessary to maintain the building.

Provided further that where a building is in the occupation of the owner for the purpose of his own resident, the annual value shall first be determined as in clause (c) and further be reduced –

- (i) where the covered area of a building under self occupation does not exceed one hundred square metres;
 - by full amount so determined;
- (ii) where the covered area of a building, exceeds one hundred square metres;
 - by full amount so determined for first one hundred square meters and by half of. The amount so determined for the area by which it exceeds one hundred square meters;

206. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 205, the State Government may, in the public interest, regularize the buildings in any area whether constructed with or without sanction or the municipality and for which no building scheme or town planning scheme has been sanctioned.

(2) The municipality may, in respect of the area covered under subsection (1) of section 205 proceed to provide internal services as defined in sub-section (1) of section 205 to the owners of the buildings and plots and shall impose a fee for providing the same in accordance with the provisions of section 70.

Punishment for erection or re-erection of a building on sanction of a building scheme under section 205.

207. If under the provisions of any scheme sanctioned under section 205 the erection or re-erection of buildings in a specified area for a specified purpose is prohibited, any person who after such scheme is sanctioned uses any building for such purpose shall, unless it was used for this purpose before the scheme was sanctioned, on conviction be liable to a fine which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and more than five hundred rupees and if after such conviction, he continues to use such building for such purpose shall be liable to a further fine of fifty rupees for every day during which such use continues.

Powers of municipality to sanction or refuse erection or reerection of building.

208. (1) The municipality shall refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of any building in contravention of any bye-law made under sub-section (1) of section 204 or in contravention of any scheme sanctioned under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 205, unless it be necessary to sanction the erection of a building in contravention of such a scheme owing to the municipalities inability to pay compensation as required by section 186 for the setting back of a building.

(2) When the erection or re-erection of a building is likely, in the opinion of the municipality to interfere with the enforcement of a scheme proposed under section 205 the municipality may refuse its sanction, and in such case shall communicate its refusal in writing together with the ground therefore, to the applicant within sixty days of the receipt of his application and the applicant may thereafter by written notice require the municipality to proceed with the preparation of the proposed scheme with all possible speed. The application shall be deemed to have been sanctioned if an order of refusal is not passed by the municipality, within the time specified above, or if the proposed scheme has not received the sanction of the State Government within twelve months of the date of delivery of applicant's written notice hereinbefore referred to:

Provided that should a resolution refusing such sanction be suspended under section 263, the period prescribed above shall commence to run afresh from the date of communication of final orders by the Director or the Deputy Commissioner under section 266.

Explanation.-A scheme shall be deemed to have been proposed under this section if a requisition for its preparation has been received by the municipality from the Deputy Commissioner or if the preparation of the scheme is under the consideration of the municipality.

(3) The municipality, may refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of any building for any other reason, to be communicated in writing to the applicant, which it, deems to be just and sufficient as affecting such building, or if on the land, which it is proposed. to erect or re-erect such building is vested in the Government or in the municipality, and the consent of the concerned Government or, as the case may be, of the municipality has not been obtained, or if the title to the land is in dispute between such person and the municipality or any Government.

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) the municipality, may sanction the erection or re-erection of any building either absolutely or subject to such modifications in accordance with the bye-laws and rules as it may deem fit.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) but subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 204 and sub-section (2) of this section if the municipality neglects or omits, within sixty days of tile receipt from any person of a valid notice of such person's intention to erect or re-erect a building, or within one hundred twenty days, if the notice relates to a building on the same or part of the same site, on which sanction for the erection of a building has been refused within the previous twelve months, to pass orders sanctioning or refusing to sanction such erection or re-erection, such erection. or re-erection shall, unless the land on which it is proposed to erect or re-erect such buildings belongs to or vests in the municipality, be deemed to have been sanctioned, except in so far as it may contravene any bye-law, or any building or town planning scheme sanctioned under section 205 :

Provided that should a resolution conveying or refusing such sanction be suspended under section 263, the period prescribed under this subsection shall commence to run afresh from the date of communication of final orders by the Director or the Deputy Commissioner under section 266

Provided further that if not less than one fifth of the members present vote against a resolution conveying sanction, the sanction shall be deemed not to have been conveyed until after the lapse of fourteen days from the passing of the resolution.

Power of municipality to direct modification of a sanctioned plan of a building before its completion.

209 (1) For the purposes of drawing up of a building scheme for built up areas and a town planning scheme for unbuilt up areas, the municipality may, and if so required by the State Government shall, cause the geological survey of the municipal area conducted by such persons and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Where the building plan is sanctioned, the person, at whose instance building operations are to be carried out shall, after the excavation of the foundation and before starting construction thereon, intimate the municipality about the excavation of the foundation.

(3) For the purpose of ascertaining, whether the strata of the land, over which a building is to be erected is geologically fit, and the building operation thereon can be carried out in accordance With the sanctioned plan, the municipality may, within seven days from the intimation under sub-section (2), cause inspection of excavated foundation to be made by such persons as it may direct, and in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that the person at whose instance the building operation are carried out shall be associated in the inspection.

(4) The persons making the inspection under sub-section (3) may communicate to the person from whom intimation under sub-section (2), has been received, its views in regard to the result of such inspection and may after ascertaining the opinion of the said person, recommend to that person the action to be taken as a result of such inspection and also report to the Executive Officer of the municipality the action, if any, which is proposed to be taken for the purposes of implementation of any such recommendation.

(5) On the receipt of the report under sub-section (4), the municipality may within seven days from the date of intimation under sub-section(2), give such direction to the person concerned, as it may deem fit.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding sub-sections, if at any time before the completion of a building of which the erection has been sanctioned under section 208 the municipality finds that modification of the sanctioned plan is necessary, the municipality may, subject to the compensation for any loss to which the owner may be put, direct that the building be modified accordingly.

210. (1) Every person shall, within one month after the completion of the erection of the whole or part of the building, deliver or sent or cause to be delivered or sent to the Executive Officer a notice in writing of such completion or part of completion accompanied by a certificate in the Form prescribed by bye-laws made in this behalf and shall give to the Executive Officer all necessary facilities for the inspection of such building or part of the building

(2) No person shall occupy or permit to be occupied any such building or use or permit to be used any building Or part thereof until permission has been granted by the Executive Officer in this behalf in accordance with the bye-laws made under this Act:

Provided that if the Executive Officer fails within a period of thirty days after the receipt of the notice of completion to communicate his refusal to grant such permission, such permission shall be deemed to have been granted.

(3) Every sanction for the erection or re-erection of any building which shall be given or be deemed to have been given by a municipality shall remain in force for two years only from the date of such sanction . or for such longer period as the municipality or the Executive Officer or Secretary, as the case may be, may have allowed when conveying sanction under section 203. Should the erection or re-erection of the building not have been commenced within one year and completed within three years or such longer period as may have been allowed by the municipality the sanction shall be deemed to have lapsed but such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh sanction under the foregoing provisions of the Act.

Proposed Amendment:

In section 210 of the Principal Act, after sub-section(3), the following section new sub-section(4) shall be added, namely;

“(4) No electricity, water or sewerage connection shall be given to any person within the municipal limits unless a No Objection Certificate has been obtained by such person from the concerned Executive Officer or Secretary, as the case may be.”

211. (1) Should a building be begun, erected or re-erected--

- (a) without sanction as required by sub-section (1) of section 203; or
- (b) without notice as required by sub-section (2) of section 203; or
- (c) when sanction has been refused, the municipality may by notice deliver to the owner within six months from the completion of building, require the building to be allotted or demolished as it may deem necessary within the period specified in such notice; and should it be begun or erected.

- (d) in contravention of the terms of any sanction granted;
- (e) when the sanction lapsed; or
- (f) in contravention of any bye-law made under section 204 or, in the case of a building, of which the erection has been deemed to be sanctioned under sub-section (5) of section 208, if it contravenes any scheme sanctioned under section 205;

the municipality may by notice to be delivered to the owner within six months from the completion of the building, require the building to be altered in such manner as it may deem necessary, within the period specified in such notice: .

Completion Certificate and lapse of sanction.

Penalty for disobedience.

Provided that the municipality shall require a building to be demolished or altered so far as is necessary to avoid contravention of a building scheme drawn up under section 205;

Provided further that where the erection of the work has not been completed, the Executive Officer may by the same or separate order, whether made at the time of the issue of the notice under this sub-section or at any other time, direct the person to stop erection or work till the expiry of the period within which an appeal against the order of demolition if made, may be preferred under sub-section (1) of section 212."

Provided further that if any notice issued by the Executive Officer or Secretary, as the case may be, under this section on the ground that a building has been begun or has been erected in contravention of the terms of any sanction granted or in contravention of any bye-law made under section 204 the person to whom the notice is issued may, within fifteen days from the date of service of such notice, appeal to the municipality and subject to the provisions of section 212, 263 and 269, the decision of the municipality shall be final:

Provided further that the copy of the final order of the municipality shall be given free of costs to the appellant immediately after it is made.

(2) Where the owner of the building submits the revised plan, after the work has been stopped by him or the work is completed by him and there are deviations from the sanctioned plan, the municipality may, subject to the special or general directions of the State Government under sub-section (3), compound the case of deviations up to 10% from the sanctioned plan:

Provided that where the revised plan involves erection of building--

(1) On any Government land or the land vesting in a municipality or a local authority; or

(2) By covering any public road, street path or drain; or

(3) By contravening the provisions of the Himachal Pradesh Road side land control Act, 1969; the municipality shall not compound deviations from the sanctioned plan:

(2A) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the municipality under sub-section (2), may within thirty days from the passing of the orders by the municipality and in such manner as may be prescribed, appeal to the Deputy Commissioner

(2B) any person aggrieved by the decision of the Deputy Commissioner in appeal under subsection (2A) may, within thirty days from the order made by the Deputy Commissioner and in such manner prescribed appeal to the State Government .

(2 (C)) The appellate authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, allow the appeals to be filed after the expiry of the period of thirty days specified in sub-section (2A) and (2B) and for calculating the period of thirty days under the said sub-sections, the time spent in procuring the certified copies of the orders to be appealed against shall be excluded.

(2D) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), (2A) and (2B), the State Government may, in exceptional case of external hardship, compound the case of deviations from sanctioned plans.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in this Act the Government, may from time to time, give such special or general directions in the matters of policy in relation to the compounding of cases involving deviations from the sanctioned plans as in its opinion are required to be followed by the municipality for compounding such cases under sub-section (2) of this section.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act the municipality may, after affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard, deny or withdraw the civic amenities including water and sewerage connections, if the owner of the building makes deviations from the sanctioned plan by addition of a storey beyond the sanctioned plan erection of a building on any Government land or land vested in the municipality or by covering any public road, street, path or drain.

“(5) Any person failing to comply with the direction to stop erection or work under second provision to sub-section(1), shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and when the non-compliance is a continuing one, with a further fine, which may extend to fifty rupees for every day during which the non-compliance continues.”

212. (1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the municipality made under second provision to sub-section (1) of section 211 may prefer an appeal to the District Judge having jurisdiction over the municipal area within the period of Seven days from the date on which the copy of order made by the municipality, given to him.

(2) Where an appeal is preferred under sub-section (1) against an order of demolition, the District Judge may stay the enforcement of that order On such terms if any, and for such period, as :t may think fit :

Provided that where the erection of any building or execution of any work has not been completed at the time of the making of the order of demolition, no order staying the enforcement of the order of demolition shall be made by the District judge unless reasonable opportunity of being heard is afforded to the municipality and security sufficient in the opinion of the District Judge has been given by the appellant for not proceeding with such erection or work pending the disposal of the appeal.

(3) Save as provided in this section no court shall entertain any suit, application Or other proceedings for injunction Or other relief against the municipality or restrain it from taking any action or making any order in pursuance of the provisions of this section.

Order of demolition of building and works in certain cases and appeal.

(4) Every order made by the District Judge on appeal and subject only to such order, the order of demolition made by the municipality shall be final and conclusive

(5) Where no appeal has been preferred against an order of demolition made by the municipality under section 211 or where an order of demolition made by the municipality under that section has been confirmed on appeal, whether with or without variation: the person against whom the order has been made shall comply with the order within the period specified therein or, as the case may be, within the period, if any fixed by the District Judge on appeal, and on the failure of the person to comply with the order within such period, the Executive Officer may himself cause the erection of the work to which the order relates to be demolished and the expenses of such demolition shall be recoverable from such person as an arrear or tax under this Act.

Compensations.

213. (1) No compensation shall be claimable by an owner for any damage which he may sustain in consequence of the prohibition of erection of any building.

(2) The municipality shall make reasonable compensation to the owner for any damage or loss which he may sustain in consequence of the prohibition of the re-erection of any building Or a part of a building except in solar as the prohibition is necessary under any bye-law:

Provided that the municipality shall make full compensation to the owner for any damage he may sustain in consequence of his building or any part thereof being set back, unless for a period of three years or more immediately preceding such notice the building has by reason of its being in a ruinous or dangerous condition become unfit for human habitation or unless an order of prohibition issued under section 120 has been and still is in force in respect of such building.

Power of municipality to regulate the manufacture preparation and sale of food and drink.

214. The municipality may, and shall, if so required by the State) Government by bye-laws-
